

Workshop Delivery Opportunities

Demonstrate your expertise by presenting a financial literacy or smart consumer workshop at the Small Change Expo! You provide the content and we'll provide the meeting room, audio visual and promotional support.

Ideal workshops will help build acumen to deal with the financial implications of various life events, foster a foundation for life-long financial learning and give parents the tools and strategies to share this knowledge with their children.

Life Events:

- Opening an account
- Getting a new job
- Going to college or university
- Buying a car
- Getting married
- Buying a home
- Having children
- Losing a job
- Starting a business
- Planning for retirement
- Relationship breakup or divorce
- Being victimized by fraud or elder abuse
- Receiving unexpected money or inheritance
- Coping with illness or disability
- Caring for a loved one
- Living your retirement
- Dealing with dying and death

Meeting Room & Workshop Promotional Features

Sidney Room or Colwood Room: Located on the second floor of the Victoria Conference Centre and adjacent to Small Change Exhibition Hall, your meeting space provides space for up to 85 workshop participants (theatre style seating) and includes:

- 8' Screen
- Multimedia Projector
- Wireless Microphone Combo with Shure Body Pack Transmitter
- 34" Skirted Projection Cart
- Inclusion of your workshop title, name and organization in the Small Change online and printed event agenda
- 75 word workshop description in the online event program
- 50 word speaker biography in the in the online event program
- 25 complimentary tickets to the Small Change Personal Finance Expo for you to distribute to your network of contacts.
- On-site workshop announcement via the 6 in-house flat screen monitors

Investment: $425 + HST for a 45 minute session. Book early! Space is limited.

Every Aspect has allocated a number of no-charge workshop spaces for community organizations and for presentations that allow us to create a comprehensive event agenda that is in alignment with Small Change Personal Finance Expo goals and objectives.